Ford 351 6.200 connecting rods Description

As with all Hurricane performance connecting rods, our Ford Series h beam conrods are finished in the advance CNC machinery and designed to withstand the abuse from today's high rpm naturally aspirated engines as well as high horsepower forced induction applications. This Ford 351 6.200" connecting rods features premium 7/16" bolts. 0.927 Wrist Pin / 0.940 Big End Width / 2.225 Big End Bore.

A higher quality connecting rod will typically have a superior heat treatment that improves tensile and yield strength, also will usually have a better surface treatment that reduces the risk of stress fractures and rod failure. Hurricane ford 351 WINDSOR connecting rod have the ability to reach above standards because of the facts:

- 1.100% premium AISI4340 forged billet steel
- 2.Strict forge and heat treatment processed forgings, hardness of 34-38 HRC.
- 3..Mirco polishing and shot blasting.
- 4..Bend and twist is tightly controlled

Note: The ford small block 351 forged connecting rods are very beautiful and tough after shot peened progress.☐
